NATURE RESERVE

RIVIERA MAYA, MÉXICO

jMa'lob k'iin!

Welcome to the Mayan Underworld

You are about to enter an unknown and amazing world, where all your senses are sharpened, and you disconnect from the outside world and start your inside journey... The bowels of Mother Earth are waiting for you. Are you ready?

This Story begins

more than 15 years ago, in the surroundings of the great Mayan jungle of Playa del Carmen, while an ejidatario of the area was chasing an iguana that was hiding, he discovered a natural wonder hidden under his feet: An impressive system of semi-flooded caves of incredible natural beauty. After years of exploration and surveying to learn all the entrances and secrets of the system, Rio Secreto Nature Reserve was born.

This cave system has an approximate length of 40 km mapped, of which only 10% is used for ecotourism tours, distributed in more than five different routes; the rest is destined to the conservation of the system.

Today, travelers from all over the world marvel at its crystalline waters where they take home a unique life experience..

Sustainability Policy

Our engine is the conservation, which has led us to become a unique nature reserve, thanks to the fact that all our projects and decisions are made prioritizing the minimum environmental impact to help us meet certain criteria and always promote sustainable development.

Therefore, we are governed by a sustainability policy based on 4 fundamental pillars:

Environmental protection.

Legal compliance and continuous improvement.

Local employment.

Local products and services: Fair trade.

Conservation

Along with our sustainability policy, we created our Protect to Preserve program where we collaborate with different associations and organizations whose values and objectives are aligned with ours, allowing us to generate an even greater positive impact on the environment and the community. Such as Jaguar Wildlife Center, with whom thanks to their support we carry out our 3 main integral actions

- > Environmental Education.
- > Educational tours.
- > Wildlife monitoring.

For more information about Jaguar Wildlife Center, visit www.jaguarwildlifecenter.org

Science

Thanks to researcher Fernanda Lases and the unique below-ground laboratory located in our Nature Reserve, we have been able to record information about past climates and studies of the amount of water seeping into areas of low anthropogenic impact and to understand momentous questions about climate change and conservation like no other place in the world.

Knowing the behavior of the cave helps us to prevent future changes in the aquifer and to identify the best way to preserve our ecosystem..

Culture

We know that fostering traditions is preserving our culture, so at Rio Secreto, you will find places, activities and moments that will make you feel connected to the Mayan culture that will make you capture the essence of the past and the present.

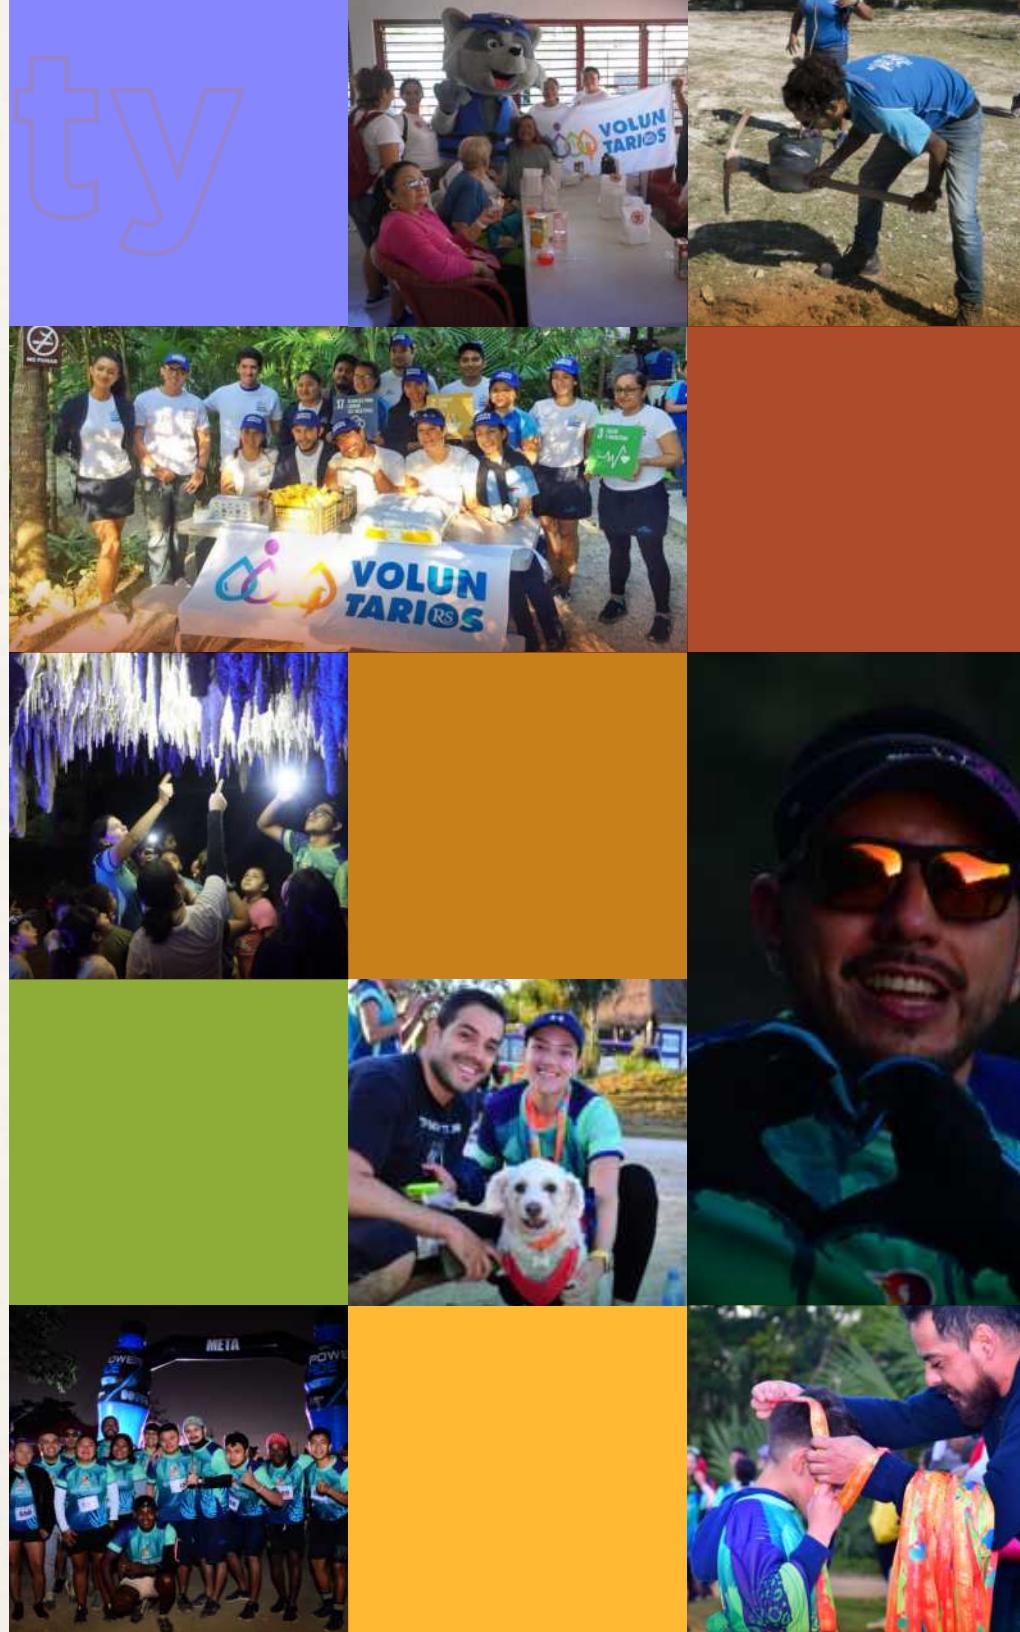

Community

Volunteers

Since 2017, our Rio Secreto Volunteers program, participates in actions that serve the community and promote values that contribute to form better citizens. The objective is to put into practice leadership and teamwork skills. Thanks to this program, we have carried out different initiatives, with which it has been possible to give back to the community, with the same affection and commitment with which it has hosted us, as well as contribute to the fulfillment of the 17 Sustainable Development Goals, proposed by the UN..

Race

Every year we had the Rio Secreto Race where the objective is not only to run, but to generate a family atmosphere and promote sports with our employees, friends and community. Everyone can participate in this activity! Regardless of age or abilities; you can walk, jog, run with a stroller, wheelchair and even pets, because the important thing is to finish..
